DETAILED ACTION

Supplemental Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of group II in the reply filed on November 30, 2007 is acknowledged. However, applicant stated that "Applicant's elect group II which is directed to a method of treating heart failure", and group II is actually directed to the composition, and group I is the method of treating heart failure. Because applicant stated specifically they were electing the method of treating heart failure and withdrew the corresponding composition claims this will be treated as an election of group I. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

In previous restriction requirement mailed November 01, 2007, claim 10 was accidentally left out of the groupings. It should have been included in group I. Applicant added claim 10 to the groupings upon election, however it was not present in the original action. Examiner apologizes for the inadvertent omission of claim 10, however since group 10 is included in the method of treatment, an election of species is now necessary for group I as well as group II.

This application also contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. Applicant has claimed several different structurally distinct compounds of various general formulas, I-VI. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

If group I or group II is elected, then the applicant must elect a single disclosed species of S1P receptor. Applicant must first elect formula I, II, III, IV, V, or VI and then further elect a specific compound in which all variables have been specified.

Applicants are cautioned that election of a specific compound which has not been specifically disclosed as filed may be determined to be new matter.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103 (a) of the other invention.
